Young Penn Yan Man Listed in 1949-50 Collegiate Who's Who

G. Lee Newell of Penn Yan is one of 17 seniors at Clarkson college to be nominated for recognition in the 1949-'50 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Men are chosen by a faculty committee on the basis of scholarship, character and participation in extra-curricular activities. The book is published every year and includes the outstanding students from more than 500 colleges.

Lee, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Newell of 109 Court street, Penn Yan, is a major in industrial engineering. A member of the student chapter of the American Society of Mechanical engineers, he is also sports editor of the Integrator, student newspaper, a member of the student chapter of the Society of American Military engineers, and chairman of the stunts and statues committee for the 1950 Ice Carnival.

He participates in both the college glee club and band. He is also active in the Clarkson guard, Rifle club and on the staff of radio station WNTC. He was recently elected to the Clarkson Quill, journalistic recognition society at Clarkson.
